At CNC we know that outdoor learning provides authentic experiences, increases attention, and develops problem-solving skills. To stay comfortable and focused when learning outdoors, it is important to wear the right clothing for each season. Use this graphic as a guide to dressing for the weather and then Venture Out!

Dressing in layers can help children manage their comfort levels during programs.